ABOUT DERRICK

Derrick K. Douglas is a speaker, author, and ministry leader who helps people discover their God-given potential and live it on purpose. He blends biblical insight, humor, and practical application into messages that meet people where they are and leave them with a clear next step.

With more than a decade of ministry leadership, Derrick has developed sermon series, led community-building initiatives, and created resources that help believers chase after Christ. His relatable, energetic style connects with churches, conferences, and leadership audiences alike.
